John Dowland (1563-1626)

Unquiet thoughts
Say, Love, if ever thou didst find
Time stands still
Sorrow, stay
Come, heavy sleep
Come again
In darkness let me dwell

Michael Finnissy (b. 1946)

Tom Hammond-Davies, countertenor

Tom is a prizewinning choral conductor working closely with top international artists including singer Katherine Jenkins and Peter Manning, Concertmaster of the Royal Opera House. He is the founder and director of The Blenheim Singers at Blenheim Palace, the birthplace of Sir Winston Churchill, and was recently appointed Musical Director of the Wooburn Singers, Buckinghamshire's leading chamber choir founded by Richard Hickox in 1967.

Since 2005 he has been Director of Music at the City Church of Oxford, St Michael at the North Gate, and is currently a countertenor Lay Clerk with the multiple Gramophone Award-winning Choir of New College, Oxford. Previously, he was organ scholar at Hertford College, Oxford and countertenor Lay Clerk with the Choir of Magdalen College, Oxford. He won the Birmingham Conservatoire Sir Michael Beech Conducting Award in 2011, and the 2010 Three Choirs Festival Conducting Masterclass.

As a choral singer, Tom has recently recorded with New College Choir, and performed Bernstein's 'Mass' with the BBC National Chorus of Wales in the BBC Proms. Tom made his debut as a soloist singing Bach with New College Choir and the Oxford Philomusica in Bath Abbey and the Sheldonian Theatre, Oxford, and more recently in Grace Cathedral, San Francisco. He will be singing solos in performances of Handel's Messiah in March with New College Choir and the Guildford Chamber Choir.
